Four arrows point towards the maze from its sides: one at the top, one at the bottom, and two on the right side. Surrounding the maze are several whimsical, hand-drawn elements. At the top left is a blue caterpillar with a smiling face. To its right is a green flower with five petals. Further right is a small brown log. Below the log is a red mushroom with white spots. To the right of the mushroom is a green lily pad. Above the lily pad is a small blue flower with three petals. To the right of the lily pad is a small green plant with three leaves. Below the lily pad is a small blue insect with a crown. To the right of the insect is a small blue rock. At the bottom left is a small green vine with three leaves. At the bottom right is a small blue insect with a crown. On the right side of the maze, there are two arrows pointing right. The first arrow points to a large, light blue creature with a crown and whiskers, resembling a walrus or a seal. The second arrow points to a purple upright piano with a smiling face and rosy cheeks. Above the piano is a small green leaf. To the right of the piano is a small blue insect with a crown. At the very bottom right is a small blue rock.
